warden, Morris

Civil Action no: 3:12-CV-660-DPJ-FKB

S.M.C.I.
Superintendent, Ron King

Defendants

Motion For Judgment and Compliance

plaintiff move this Honorable Court Submitting to the proper Judge of Jurisdiction, to order the Authority of South Mississippi Correctional Institution to comply with State and Federal laws. to document and file this information of violation of law, and to be moved upon by this Honorable Court promptly. From a act of retaliation of E.M.C.F, for my last filing of Judgment and Compliance I was transferred to S.M.C.I. on 7-16-13, through retaliation plaintiff have been placed in a certian building here that through it have denied plaintiff access to the legal law library to research and properly fight his on going civil case, through the process have completely closed the doors of the Court to the plaintiff.

From the date entry in S.M.C.I. until the filing of this motion, plaintiff have been denied access to the law library, and to the Courts. which is clearly a violation of plaintiff 14th Amendment Constitutional rights, those cited under (Bounds v. Smith, Younger v. Gilmore, Cruz v. Hauck, Poloms v. Carlson, Esson v. Thaler, Milton v. Morris, Johnson v. Avery, and Crawford-El. v. Britten.). plaintiff adds that this matter have been revealed by writ to the warden, Superitendant, of this institution that have disregarded plaintiff constitutional rights. therefore plaintiff demands judgment against the authorities of S.M.C.I. to be acted upon by the Honorable court promptly.
